

Growing Quaker Values

A collaborative educational session about planned giving

Thursday, September 20th, 2018

Want to PLANT a seed for the future?

Ready to put Quaker values to work through philanthropy? Join us for a casual information session with Mimi Blackwell (pictured left), Planned Giving Program Manager at Friends Fiduciary. Enjoy refreshments and fellowship with others from our community while learning ways planned giving could benefit you and the Quaker organizations you appreciate. Whether you have multiple gifts already in place or are just beginning to think about ways planned giving can meet your philanthropic goals, this session is a great place to start. Learn the basics and benefits of bequests, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, and more!
